BOOK

Mobilizing Gen Z by Jolene Erlacher and Katy White

OVERVIEW

This book provides incredible insight to the future of missions. It focuses on Gen Z and how parents and the church can successfully disciple the next generation to follow after Jesus, especially when it comes to world missions. This book is highly recommended for those who are trying to influence the younger generation to have a heart for local and global missions.

BOOK

You Are Sent by Nathan Sloan

OVERVIEW

“In this nine-week study, participants will discover God's passion for local and global missions and be empowered to make Jesus known everywhere they go. You Are Sent is adaptable and flexible for each church's need and accessible for every member, no matter where they live or what they do. This resource helps every Christian live missionally while at the same time helping them to develop a passion and knowledge for global missions.”

BOOK

Helping Without Hurting in Short Term Missions by Steve Corbett and Brian Fikkert

OVERVIEW

Steve Corbett and Brian Fikkert do an incredible job breaking down what short-term missions looks like and how to effectively go on a short-term trip without causing more harm. Churches and youth ministries will find encouraging stories and practical guidelines as they prepare to go on short-term missions trips.

Before You Go by Emily Bennett

OVERVIEW

“You’ve said “yes” to God’s call to go, and now you will pack up your things and step into the unknown of a new location, people, and culture. The following years will likely include great joy, frustration, homesickness, difficulty, and excitement. In this book, ten women who have served on the mission field share what they wish they had known before they began.”

Gospel 101 for Teens: Learning, Living, and Sharing the Gospel by Jeff Dodge

OVERVIEW

“Gospel 101 for Teens serves as an introductory-level course on the “big picture” message of redemption. It equips teens with the language of the gospel to confidently move past the fear of sharing their faith with friends and classmates. By learning to share the gospel in their own words and explain why it matters, teens will be ready to communicate this message in a life-giving, clear, and personal way.”

Called - How Jesus Transformed Ordinary People into Disciples by Lifeway

OVERVIEW

“The moment you placed your faith in Jesus, the starter pistol fired, releasing you to follow Him while inviting others to do the same. The race is called discipleship. Just as a champion athlete is recruited and coached, you were recruited by God, given coaching tips through the life and teachings of Jesus, and called to “go” for the kingdom of heaven. This thirty-day devotional will walk you through the people Jesus called, how He taught them, and what He called them to do. Don’t just read the words on these pages. Live them. You’ve been called. Let’s go!”

BOOK

Experiencing God - Teen Bible Study Book Knowing and Doing the Will of God by Daniel & Mike Blackaby

OVERVIEW

“When you open this book you’ll find that you aren’t just reading; you are being remade, reoriented, and restored—captured not by a concept but by your Creator. Experiencing God has already impacted millions of people, and this revision written by Mike and Daniel Blackaby, grandsons of the original author, is ready to lead you again—or for the first time—into an experience with God. Carefully listening to His voice will anchor you in His plan and set you free to live it with boldness and freedom.”
